Adelaide Crows (South Australia)

Established in 1990, the Adelaide Crows were one of the first expansion clubs outside Victoria. They quickly found success, winning back-to-back premierships in 1997 and 1998. Known for their passionate fan base at the Adelaide Oval, the Crows wear navy blue and gold. Their identity is deeply tied to the spirit of South Australia.

Brisbane Lions (Queensland)

The Brisbane Lions were formed in 1996 through a merger of the Fitzroy Lions (a VFL original) and the Brisbane Bears. This fusion created a powerhouse, with the club winning three consecutive premierships from 2001 to 2003. The Lions are known for their attacking style of play and the incredible atmosphere at the Gabba. Their maroon, blue, and gold guernsey is iconic.

Carlton Blues (Victoria)

One of the oldest and most successful clubs in the league, Carlton was founded in 1864. They are a founding member of the VFL/AFL and have won 16 premierships, second only to Essendon and Collingwood. The Blues are known for their navy blue guernsey and a fierce rivalry with Collingwood. Princes Park (Ikon Park) is their traditional home, though they play most games at the MCG and Marvel Stadium.

Collingwood Magpies (Victoria)

Collingwood is arguably the most famous club in Australia. Founded in 1892, they boast the largest membership base in the league and a record-equalling 16 premierships. They are known for the black and white stripes, the passionate "Collingwood Army," and their home ground at the Melbourne Cricket Ground. The Magpies are a cornerstone of any list of AFL teams in alphabetical order.

Essendon Bombers (Victoria)

Founded in 1872, Essendon is another powerhouse with 16 premierships to its name. Known as the "Bombers" or "Dons," they wear a distinctive black guernsey with a red sash. Their home ground is the Melbourne Cricket Ground. Essendon has a rich history of champions, including the legendary John Coleman, and maintains a bitter rivalry with Carlton and Collingwood.

Fremantle Dockers (Western Australia)

The Dockers joined the AFL in 1995 as the second team from Western Australia. Based at Fremantle Oval and playing home games at Optus Stadium, they are known for their purple and white colours. While they have not yet won a premiership, they have been a consistent finals contender, reaching the Grand Final in 2013. Their nickname pays homage to the port city of Fremantle.

Geelong Cats (Victoria)

Located south-west of Melbourne, the Geelong Cats were founded in 1859, making them one of the oldest clubs in the world. They have won 10 premierships, including a dominant period from 2007 to 2011. The Cats are famous for their home ground, Kardinia Park (GMHBA Stadium), a fortress where they are notoriously difficult to beat. Their navy blue and white hoops are instantly recognizable.

Gold Coast Suns (Queensland)

The Suns entered the AFL in 2011 as the league's 17th club. Based on the Gold Coast, they play at Heritage Bank Stadium. The Suns wear red, yellow, and blue, representing the coastal lifestyle. They are still building their history and are developing a strong young list, aiming for their first finals appearance in the coming years.

Greater Western Sydney (GWS) Giants (New South Wales)

Joining the league alongside the Gold Coast in 2012, the Giants represent Western Sydney and the surrounding regions. They wear orange, charcoal, and white. Despite their youth, the Giants have been highly competitive, reaching a Grand Final in 2019. Their academy system is one of the best in the league, producing top young talent.

Hawthorn Hawks (Victoria)
